EVOLUTION BILL KILLED IN HOUSE

Sensational Finish Comes To
Most Discussed Measure of Term—Park Against It

Frankfort, Ky., Mar. 10—After a hard all day fight, the house of representatives Thursday by a vote of 42 to 41 killed the Ellis anti-evolution bill and put an end to the present session to the agitation over this measure. Friends of the University of Kentucky made a gallant fight for that institution, against an attack that called in outsiders to assist in the efforts to pass the bill.

The bill, which prohibits the teaching of "evolution, atheism, agnosticism or Darwinism" in any school maintained by public taxation in Kentucky, was a much more objectionable measure than the compromise bill which was sidetracked by the rules committee of the senate some time ago, according to the opponents. President McVey, of the University, made a masterly appeal for freedom of religious thought and in reply to questions showed plainly that nothing tending to undermine religious belief is the intent or purpose of the instruction at that university.

Rev. E. L. Powell, pastor of the First Christian church of Louisville, also spoke strongly against the bill, while Noel W. Gaines, of this city, was the speaker in favor of the measure. Two of the ministers in the house, C. D. McCaw and G. C. Waggoner, also helped to defeat the bill, while another minister, who is a member, Rev. George F. Thompson, did not vote. Rev. Noah T. Hopkins was the other minister who voted on the measure and he favored it, and made by far the strongest speech for the bill.

Following the plan decided on at the secret caucus at the capital Wednesday night, the senate democrats passed both the Louisville city government bill without amendment, and the Strange oil tester and gauger bill during the day and deferred action on any road measure.

Senator J. W. Stoll, republican of Lexington, joined the democrats in voting against amendment offered by Senator Lewis Ryans to permit the ousted Louisville officials to serve on the terms to which they have been appointed or elected. The seven democrats who originally favored this amendment had been lined up against it at the caucus Wednesday night and amendment was beaten 21 to 16. The bill, without amendment, finally was passed 29 to 7.

When the oil bill was taken up all the republicans opposed it, but by a party vote of 19 to 17, Senator Ben T. Davis, democrat, not voting, the bill was passed. Governor Morrow, it is said, will certainly veto the oil inspector bill, but his action on the Louisville city government measure is not forecast, but it is generally believed that he will permit it to become a law without his signature.

With adjournment of the house late in the afternoon, all house bills, which had not received first reading, died. The mortality list includes the Duffy bill, designed to double the daily license tax on race tracks and removing the restrictions whereby cities are prevented from levying license tax on such tracks. As only five days remain until the close of the session, it is impossible to give a bill three readings in each house, and satisfy the constitutional requirements before adjournment.

Following is the vote by which the "monkey bill," as the evolution bill was called, was laid to rest:

For: Amos, Bennett, Boling, Chandler, Cross, Day, Denton, Ellis, Harvey, Holder, Hopkins, Humbert, Huntsman, Jones, Gelly Lane, Light, D. C. Moore, S. H. Moore, Murrah, McGuire, C. A. Nelson, Newman, O'Donovan, Oney, Pierce, Payne, Powell, Quarles, Saunders, Skaggs, S. G. Thornberry, D. D. Thornberry, Toombs, Trumbo, VanHoose, Walker, Wheeler, Wicker, Willis, Fultz—41.

Against: Adams, Beelmann, Bosworth, Bowman, Boyd, Brown, Clark, Cudiff, Dorsey,

Body Disinterred To Get Slayer's Bullet

Mt. Vernon, Ky., Mar. 10—In order to get the bullet which slew Bert Mullins, three weeks ago, the court ordered the body exhumed. Sheriff D. G. Clark had it dug up and Drs. Pennington and Lewis found and removed the bullet. It proved to be of .38 calibre and this will figure in prosecution of the case.

PRESBYTERIANS START "PAY UP" CAMPAIGN

Members of the Southern Presbyterian church expect to establish a record before the end of the church year, April 1st, and report all pledges made for benevolent causes as paid up. It has been decided to put on a "payup" campaign and local Presbyterians state that every congregation in that denomination will be asked to join in an effort to wipe out all deficits.

At the last meeting of the general assembly of that church it was decided to raise $4,500,000 of which 60 per cent was to be apportioned as follows: Foreign missions, $1,498,500; home missions, $720,000; Christian education and ministerial relief, $337,500; publication and Sabbath school extension, $90,000; Bible society, $27,000; training school, $27,000. The balance of $1,800,000 would be devoted to various causes in each synod. While a large proportion of the amount subscribed has been paid it is desired to report the balance as having been collected.

In this "payup" campaign the Presbyterians have not only decided to circularize the various members of each church but by congregational meetings and addresses by church officers point out the opportunity for making a record in church finance.

U. S. DEMANDS HER EXPENSES ON RHINE

Paris, Mar. 10—A demand from the United States that $241,000, 000 for its expenses in connection with the occupation of the Rhineland be paid before any reparations are paid, was presented to the Allied finance ministers at their meeting here today.

Drury, Mrs. Flanery, Gullion, Hadden, Hamilton, Howard, Jeter, Lawrence, Leibson, Lewis, Lisle Meyers, Miller, Minor, McCaw, McMurtry, E. E. Nelson, Park, Rice, Simons, G. W. Smith, I. D. Smith, Stewart, Strange, H. V. Thompson, H. O. Thompson, Tolin, Truesdell, Vest, Waggoner, Wallin, Watkins—42.

Perhaps never since the memorable election of the late W. O. Bradley to the United States senate in 1908 has there been such interest in a vote. This was occasioned not only by the closeness of the balloting but by the fact that it was never more than four votes apart and seldom more than one or two. On first rollcall the vote stood 38 to 36 in favor of the bill and as 40 votes are required to pass a bill, its advocates demanded a rollcall of the absentees. Mr. Bowman voted in the negative, then Dr. Fultz for the bill. Mr. O'Donovan voted for it, giving it the required 40 votes. Mr. Rice voted against it as did Mr. Vest, and it was 40 to 39, with completion of the rollcall. At this moment, Lee Simons came bursting thru the door and demanded to be called. His vote against the bill made it a tie, 40 to 40.

The advocates of the measure in the meantime had scurried around and dug up Thomas Holder, of Russell county, who voted for the bill, making it 41 to 40. The other side countered, however, when after frantic urging E. E. Nelson swung into line and it was a tie again at 41-all. This would have defeated the bill but could not have put the clincher on. It was then that Bryce Cudiff rose in his seat and said that while at first he had declined to vote, he would now cast his ballot in the negative and the bill was beaten 42 to 41. The "clincher" motion was promptly applied, putting an end to the agitation.

GREENWAY GETS THE IRVINE FARM

Court of Appeals Decides He Is
Owner of It As Residuary
Legatee of Mrs. Irvine

William Irvine Greenway, of Reno, Nevada, wins the farm at the edge of Richmond, which was the basis of much litigation over the will of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Irvine, who died here several months ago.

The Court of Appeals at Frankfort Friday handed down a decision reversing the judgment of the Madison circuit court, which had decided that the farm went to David Irvine, of Kansas City. The case had been very hard fought. Representing Greenway's interest were Judge Grant E. Lilly, formerly of Richmond, and Judge E. C. O'Rear, of Frankfort. Representing Mr. Irvine was John Noland, of Richmond, and former Judge John D. Carroll, of Frankfort.

The farm was not mentioned by Mrs. Irvine in her will. The contention of Irvine was that she did not mention it among her bequests because her late husband had given his father, David I. White, of Huntsville, Ala., a life interest in it to go to him at his father's death. Greenway's contention was that as residuary legatee of the will he was therefore entitled to the farm as well as other property of which Mrs. Irvine was possessed at the time of her death, and which she had not specifically bequeathed to others in her will.

The farm is located at the intersection of the Barnes Mill and Lancaster turnpikes, is composed of about 200 acres and is regarded as a splendid piece of ground.

This decision of the Court of Appeals settles one of the main disputes over construction of Mrs. Irvine's will.

The Associated Press Dispatch
(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Mar. 10—Court of Appeals today held that William Irvine Greenway is owner of a 200-acre farm near Richmond. He is held to be the residuary legatee of Mrs. Elizabeth Irvine.

Sure Cure for Ingrowing Nails

Lorain, O., Mar. 10—Ingrown toenails had better give Frank Broughton, of South Amherst, a wide berth or he'll change their name to "souvenir." For several days the second toe on Broughton's left foot had pained him. Today he decided to put an end to the suffering and being a man of few words and much action, he announced that he was going to cut off the offending toe. A few minutes later he exhibited the toe to his family. He had cut it off with the aid of a hammer and chisel.

Tracks of Prehistoric Animals in Jackson Co.

McKee, Ky., Mar. 10—On the summit of the dividing ridge between the Kentucky and Cumberland rivers, three miles from here, tracks of prehistoric denizens have been found on the solid rock. One five toed soft footed animal left a track in mud now petrified, which is 11 inches across. A three toed track of abnormal proportions is nearby and a herd of animals of great weight left tracks on another stone plateau. Petrified rocks on which are found tracks believed to have been made by humans are found nearby. In this vicinity a few years ago, Sim Farmer found a tooth the size of a loaf of baker's bread, which was brought to McKee.

COAL MAY ESCAPE PRODUCTION TAX

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Mar. 10—With legislation out of the way regarding teaching of evolution in state supported schools, little of importance remained before either branch of the General Assembly. The budget bills are before the Senate but it was said today they probably will not be taken up before Monday. One bill in position for passage is that for a production tax on coal, but it is regarded as likely not to be called up. There will be no legislation against the race tracks at this session because none of several measures has been reported.

WILL DAY IN BAD AGAIN IN WINCHESTER

Will Day, well known here, has been having a lot of trouble with the police and federal prohibition men over in Winchester. The Sun had a long story about him from which the following is clipped:

Following a chase covering many miles in the country and leading thru the city, Will B. Day was arrested shortly after seven o'clock Wednesday evening by Chief of Police J. S. Mullins and police officer Everett Oliver at his home here and a short time later had been fined on two charges of speeding and held under bond of $500 on a charge of transporting whisky in the county.

The chase was begun about 4 o'clock by members of the sheriff's office who received a tip that a car driven by Day and containing liquor had been pulled out of a mud hole on the Mt. Sterling pike near the Montgomery county line.

Day pleaded guilty to charge of speeding in the county and was assessed a fine of $10 and costs a total of $15, which he paid. Under the second warrant, charging transportation of liquor in the county, Day was held under bond of $500, which he executed with J. D. Kash as bondsman.

Day was arrested by police officers Oliver, Strode and Dykes and two prohibition enforcement officers in August, 1920, when a moonshine still was found in his home. As a result of this case, he was found guilty, fined and served a sentence in the jail at Frankfort.

It was reported that upon his return to this city from Frankfort, Day stated that insofar as mechanical perfection was concerned, no improvement could be made on the still which was found in his house by the officials but that the only improvement would be to increase the capacity of the plant.

No liquor was found in the car driven by Day. Sheriff J. D. Bush, who has been on the job prosecuting the search for the "evidence," located 10 gallons of whisky in a barn in the Beckersville neighborhood.

One man is dead and several injured in the million dollar fire at Cheboygan, Mich., when there three business blocks were destroyed.

RICHMOND INVITED TO SEND OFFICERS

To Chamber of Commerce Meeting of Blue Grass Towns In Lexington March 23

Richmond's new Chamber of Commerce has just received an invitation to send its officers or representatives to the next monthly conference of Commercial Organization executives at Lexington March 22. The letter from C. F. Dunn, secretary-manager of the Lexington Board of Commerce is explanatory: Lexington, Ky., Mar. 8, 1922 Gentlemen:—

At the last monthly conference of Commercial Organization Executives held in Paris, it was decided that, to carry out the development program effectively for all of the cities concerned, the March meeting should be held in Lexington and the entire Board of Directors, as well as the President and Secretary, attend for a study of commercial organization methods.

You can readily appreciate the value of such a meeting, where the best methods are discussed and ideas exchanged by the directors of the various organizations, as directors above all must know and understand the fundamentals of commercial organization work to secure the needed work from their members.

The March meeting will be held Wednesday, March 22, at noon-luncheon in the Phoenix Hotel ball room, each one paying for his luncheon (75c) in accordance with agreement adopted by member organizations for all meetings. Please ascertain and advise us the names of your officers and directors who will be present, at the earliest possible moment, so we may arrange accordingly. The success of the meeting will depend upon the hearty cooperation of each organization and it should be well worth the time and expense necessary to attendance. Will you help? Yours very truly, C. F. DUNN, Sec.-Mgr.

G. OF C. TO SMOKE AND ORGANIZE

There will be a meeting Friday night of the Chamber of Commerce to elect directors and officers. Every member of the organization is urged to be at this meeting. If you are not a member come and join the organization and help make Richmond and Madison county the best place on earth to live. After the business session there will be a Smoker and a general good time together. The meeting is called for 7:30 at Masonic Temple.

Operators Are Refusing To Talk To Miners

(By Associated Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Mar. 10—Hope of a nation-wide coal strike being averted by appeal for the operators and miners to get together in a wage conference seemed to have vanished today among officials of the United Mine Workers of America, on account of the continued refusal of some operators to meet with the miners to negotiate an interstate wage agreement. Union officials, however, refrained from any announcement of their plans. Today was the last for miners to vote on the strike issue. Reports at headquarters indicated an overwhelming majority for a walkout unless a new wage contract is signed by April 1st. This is not necessarily final, however, inasmuch as the policy committee is given broad powers to act "for protection of our best interests."

Last
Spoonful Same as the First

Calumet is made under such exacting conditions — packed in such a scientific manner, that its leavening strength and purity never vary. It retains its original strength for months after leaving the factories.

When you tip the can to get the last spoonful, you know your baking will turn out all right—the last spoonful is the same as the first. This uniform quality of is cause for its big demand. Housewives know they can depend upon the results obtained—that climatic conditions or temperature cannot deteriorate its positive leavening power.

When you buy baking powder remember these facts—that a uniform leavener means bakings that do not vary in quality—that Calumet is uniform.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a lb. when you want it.

There were guests from Lexington, Berea, Louisville, Pittsburgh and other places as proof of the exceeding and growing popularity of Irvine and of this accommodating and modern hotel and its manager, Mr. B. H. Gabbard. After the banquet, at which all the delicacies of the season were served, the new Harris theatre was visited and also the rink at Ravenna. The Club proved itself a very gracious host and Winchester should be remembered as one of the brightest spots in the blue grass. The banquet table was presided over by C. E. Stearns, Ky., Mar. 10—George C. Walker former sheriff, is wondering how back taxes may be collected from a person who answered his request with this letter: "I got your note referring to my 1921 taxes. I haven't got a nickel in money to save my life and yours, too, and not a foot of land. Nothing but five little children and two little pigs. You can levy on the pigs but please let the children alone." The amount to be collected was small.

OPENING GUN IN JEWISH RELIEF DRIVE

One of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in the Bluegrass was called to order in the Lafayette Hotel, in Lexington, Sunday afternoon, March 5, by Gus L. Heyman, who introduced Col. Fred Levy, of Louisville, state chairman of the drive in Kentucky to raise $150,000 for the relief of destitute Jewish people in Central and Eastern Europe.

Delegates were present from Lexington, Winchester, Paris, Carlisle, Cynthiana, Danville, and other cities in the Bluegrass. Col. Levy in his address told of the great needs of the starving and destitute children, of the men and women in the war-torn sections of Central and Eastern Europe who, through no fault of their own, were compelled to undergo untold sufferings and whose only relief lies in the willingness of the people of the United States to help them.

Other speakers were Rabbi Rauch, of Louisville, Jonas Weil, of Lexington, Edward Sachs, of Louisville, and many others. A mass meeting will be held in Lexington Sunday, March 19, when the campaign in the Bluegrass will be started.

ALL WORN OUT

Does morning find you with a lame, stiff and aching back? Are you tired all the time—find work a burden? Have you suspected your kidneys? Richmond people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor. You can rely on their statements.

Mrs. U. N. Rings, 118 Orchard street, Richmond, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of an attack of kidney trouble that had been bothering me for some time. I had dull, nagging pains in the small of my back and hips. I felt miserable every morning when I got up as I was so lame across my back. When I stooped over I became dizzy and colored specks floated before my eyes. I was nervous and felt tired and languid all the time. My kidneys didn't act right and I made up my mind they were causing the trouble. I took a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon cured me. Doan's are a fine medicine for kidney complaint."

Another Old Hero Goes To Join Morgan

Lebanon, Ky., Mar. 10—Col. S. F. Thompson, 81, who fought in the Confederate army under the command of General John Hunt Morgan, is dead at Moline, Kansas, according to word received here. He was a native of this county. Col. Thompson's death recalled to his friends here the time he was captured by Federal forces and sentenced to be hanged. As he walked out into the yard on his way to the scaffold and past the coffin that had been brought for him, a messenger arrived with a reprieve. Had the messenger arrived five minutes later, Col. Thompson would have been executed.

Why Colds Are Dangerous

You are often told to "beware of a cold," but why? We will tell you: Every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases. People who contract pneumonia first take cold. The longer cold hangs on, the greater the danger, especially from the germ diseases, as a cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs of consumption, diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough. The quicker you get rid of your cold the less the danger of contracting one of these diseases. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation as a cure for colds and can be depended upon. It is pleasant to take.

NEWSPAPERS FEATURE
BIBLE QUOTATIONS

(By Associated Press)
Cincinnati, O., Mar. 10—Secular newspapers using the service of the Back to the Bible Bureau, which has headquarters here, have given without charge over $950,000 worth of space for the publication of Scripture, according to Addison Y. Reid, secretary of the Bureau. "The response from the newspapers is amazing," he says. Mr. Reid reports that the combined circulation of more than 900 papers using the service exceeds 10,000,000. One of the first large dailies to carry a Bible selection free has printed one at the head of its editorial column daily since September 7, 1920, records show. The service also is supplied to papers in Canada, Hawaii, Alaska and the Virgin Islands.

The bureau, of which James N. Gamble is chairman, supplies editors with clip-sheets bearing passages from the Bible under brief captions, for use as a feature. Many editors report that readers have welcomed the passages, according to officials of the bureau. The organization seeks to reach the public through the secular press, "the only way it can be reached," Mr. Reid asserts. Representative passages supplied by the bureau follows: "The Road to Want—He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want."—Pro. 22; 16. "The Best Medicine—A cherry heart doeth good like a medicine; but a broken spirit drieth the bones."—Prov. 22:11. "The bureau is non-sectarian," says Mr. Reid, and as clean as of "commercialism as a hound's tooth."

FEDERAL BANK LENDS
$2,000,000 A MONTH

(By Associated Press)

Louisville, Ky., Mar. 10—The Federal Land Bank of Louisville which operates in Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio, is loaning money to farmers at the rate of $2,000,000 a month, according to James B. Davis, secretary. Speaking of the work the bank is doing, Mr. Davis said:

"At present this bank is closing loans at the rate of two million dollars a month to the farmers of the four states comprising this district. This two million dollars a month of extending credit to the farmers of this district is going a long way toward undoubtedly relieving a great deal of local pressure upon the small country bank for loans in their various communities. This is one big relief this system is extending that is not generally realized."

Vienna, Mar. 10—A man walked into the bar of one of the big hotels the other afternoon and placed a pineapple on the table. "One pound sterling or 40,000 kronen," he said. There was no sale but the incident serves to illustrate the chaotic idea of values prevalent here. An Austrian smiled it gratefully, remarking: "It's the first one I have seen since 1914."
